1: Document each item requested by investigator, and each question asked and answer given (if any). Do not provide any requested materials that are off limits. If unsure, tell the investigator you need to confirm first and then call the compliance hotline to determine if requested materials can be provided or if they are off limits.. If uncomfortable, ask another employee to join you as witness and/or ask the investigator to return at another time when legal representative is present. If investigator refuses, immediately call compliance hotline for further instructions.

Answer questions when you are sure of the answer truthfully, but do not offer additional information. If unsure or cannot remember, tell investigator and do not guess.

Agencies may perform audits and investigations of pharmacies. Employees in a pharmacy may be contacted by a representative from an agency ("investigator") with legal or regulatory authority over the pharmacy. These tasks are not applicable to a non-regulatory investigation.

- 1: PIC / Supervising Pharmacist should politely ask investigator to wait and immediately notify the compliance hotline and the legal department before completing the remaining tasks.
- 2: When approached about an investigation, a pharmacy employee should politely ask investigator to wait and immediately notify the pharmacy's PIC or supervising pharmacist. The PIC/Supervising pharmacist will then politely work with the investigator and complete the following tasks:
- 3: Determine if legal representative is available to assist with the investigation.
Legal representative is available if legal representative is immediately available in person or remotely (e.g. via phone)
